

Alondra Suarez

Undergraduate Student, Washington State University, alondra.suarez@wsu.edu

EDUCATION

Expected, 2028 Bachelor's of Science Bioengineering, Washington State University, Pullman, Washington
June 2024 High School Graduate, Selah High School, Selah, Washington (3.8 GPA)

RELEVANT EXPERIENCE

June 2024 Chemist Intern at Virgil Gamache Farm

- Ran hop samples through a GC (gas chromatography) machine, and HPLC (High Performance Liquid Chromatography)

March 2024 Participate of Health Occupations Students of America (HOSA) Washington State Competition

- Designed and presented a career board and participated in two digital tests

March 2024 Participate of the Washington State Department of Health – Health Science Competition

- Created an analysis with WTN (Washington Tracking Network) data to reveal environmental impacts that affect a community

HONORS and AWARDS

August 2024 Accepted into the Honors College, Washington State University, Pullman, WA

July 2024 ESTEEMED MIRA program participate

- (Enhancing Science, Technology, EnginEering, and Math Educational Diversity) (Motivating Innovation and Research Achievement) Program, A biomedical research program funded by the National Institutes of Health. Washington State University, Pullman, Washington, only 5 students are accepted to this program

June 2024 Seal of Biliteracy in Spanish

June 2024 Voiland College of Engineering and Architecture Dean's Scholarship

EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITIES

2025 Volunteered for the 2025 Powwow in Pullman

2025 Volunteered for the Kids Science Engineering Day (KSED)

2024 - 2025 Member of Alpha Nu Multicultural Sorority Inc.

2023 - 2025 MEChA (Movimiento Estudiantil Chicano de Aztlán)

2023 - 2024 Club Medicine - Club Fundraising Chair

- Found ways to raise money to go to the HOSA Competition and Conference